Description:

To most people the Northern Territory is a vast, undiscovered and strange country. It is intimidating! In his Fishing & Camping Guide to Northern Territory Dick Eussen has done the groundwork for you. Find out the best places and times to fish and where you can camp in the Northern Territory.

Both fresh and salt water locations are covered including Arnhem Land, Kakadu, The Gulf Country, Darwin Harbour, Bynoe Harbour as well as the Daly, Roper and Victoria river systems.

Essential information like available fish species, camping areas, boat ramps, tackle shops, bait and emergency supplies is provided alongside detailed maps. The expert tips in the text, combined with detailed maps of specific fishing areas, will enable visitors to be successful time and again at 'dropping a line' and enjoying their camping experience whether it is from the beach, rocks, banks, a canoe, tinnie or from the best equipped fishing boat available.
