Description of new product :
Kiribati Sailing Adventures

Includes: Explore an untouched paradise in luxury with family, friends or groups of up to 8 persons. Enjoy the experience of a lifetime spent leisurely sailing, diving, snorkelling, exploring the stunning atolls of Kiribati, one of the most remote and unspoilt paradises on the planet, aboard a fully crewed luxury sailing yacht. Includes cockpit dining for up to 8 persons and 4 double staterooms with ensuite facilities. From $16,000 (for a group of 8) plus airfares.

Unique Features / other information :

The ideal sailing holiday for groups of friends, families, corporate clients and honeymooners to get away and enjoy some diving, snorkelling, big game fishing, fly fishing and even water skiing.

The spectacular atolls of Kiribati have been explored by only a lucky few and are home to world class gamefishing, surf, WW2 relics, and rich marine life. This is a paradise few people will ever get to experience, and now you can enjoy it in total luxury aboard the beautiful High Aspect.

High Aspect, designed as a blue water, luxury crewed sailing yacht for up to eight charter guests, is an exhilarating but pampering experience. She has been specially fitted with equipment for expedition cruising to remote locations.

High Aspect combines outstanding sailing characteristics with total onboard luxury. She combines a modern sail plan with the beauty of a traditional teak interior.

High Aspect's accommodation comprises four double cabins each en-suite with plenty of natural light and ventilation. Each cabin has a large overhead hatch plus port holes Full air-conditioning is also available.

Her 'piece de resistance' is the enormous centre cockpit, shaded from the sun by day and even for the occasional rain shower, perfect for al fresco dining with a view over the ocean. The spacious main salon seats eight for dining, or you can enjoy gourmet meals in the centre cockpit. Moonlit dining under a full bimini is the capping glory to an exciting day.
